Father's Day Whiskey Guide

Handpicked by liquor specialist Neal Endicott

$50-$70 Bourbon:

- Slaughterhouse - caramelly with red fruit and bitter oak
- Old Beezer - rich vanilla, cocoa, and subtle rye spice
- Yellowstone Select - spicy at the beginning, but mellows through the palate. Caramel and tropical fruit.

$80-$100 Bourbon:

- Smooth Ambler Contradiction ($80) - sweeter, with a balanced spiciness
- Jefferson's Ocean ($100) - layered and complex; vanilla, clove, ginger, and coconut are prominent
- High West Bourye ($100) - cut grass, clover honey, citrus zest, and vanilla
- Blood Oath Pact no. 2 ($120) - spice forward, with a softer wheat back. Notes of tobacco and leather.

$50 Scotch:

- Glengoyne 12-Year - Nutty and rich; orange zest, pepper, oak
- Johnnie Walker Rye Cask Finish - rye spice, caramel, apple, and ginger
- Laphroaig 10-Year - smoke, peat, salt

$70 Scotch:

- Glenmorangie Lasanta - dried fruit, bright acidity, caramel, shortbread
- Glenmorangie Quinta Ruban - strong dried fruit, very sweet. Slight trace of smoke
- Aberlour 16-Year - rich sherry notes, caramel, citrus zest, sour cherries
- Wemyss Malts - all employees have sampled

$100+ Scotch:

- Glenkinchie Distiller's Edition - dry sherry, apple, strong oak
- Bowmore Devil's Cask - smoky with salted caramel, plums, and baked apple
- Compass Box: the Lost Blend - strongly smoky and layered, with a good salinity and lemon zest
- Ardbeg Auriverdes - briny and smoky with a hint of smoky bacon (seriously), pomegranate, honey, and lemon
